The News-Democrat and The Trimble Banner would like to say THANK YOU to all who participated in our Cutest Pet Contest.

With 36 entries and well over 6000 votes received, your contributions will provide more than 7700 newspapers to classrooms in Carroll and Trimble County schools. Contest donations of $1,935 combined with sponsorships from North American Stainless, First National Bank of Carrollton, Farmer's Bank of Milton, Dow Corning, Tandy-Echler-Riley Funeral Home, Arvin Meritor, Baptist Hospital Northeast, United Citizens Bank and Subscriber donations brought our program totals to a record high.

Thanks to everyone who contributed, over 14,000 newspapers will be used throughout the school year by teachers and students at Cartmell Elementary, Kathryn Winn Primary, CCMS, CCHS, Bedford Elementary, Milton Elementary, TCMS & TCHS.

PRIZES!

TO ENTER: Submit one photo of your pet (only one entry per pet) along with the completed entry form, and a $15.00 donation payable to NIE Program.

Contest entries must be received by 5 p.m. Tuesday, June 24, 2008

The Kentucky Standard is not responsible for late or damaged mailed entries.

Pets receiving the most weekly votes will advance each round in the contest.

Beginning Sunday, June 29th contestant's photos will be published in The Kentucky Standard. Readers can then vote for their favorite pet photo by submitting a voting ballot along with a 25-cent-per-vote (25¢) donation to the NIE program. Voting ballots will be published in the newspaper and will be available online at kystandard.com or pick one up at The Kentucky Standard office, 110 W. Stephen Foster Ave, Bardstown.

Photos may be emailed to:
aburgen@kystandard.com or sunderwood@kystandard.com

RULES: Contest will run 4 rounds, over 4 weeks ending with the naming of 1st, 2nd, 3rd, place Kentucky Standard Pet Idol winners. All photos will appear in the first round – after that 25% of the photos will be eliminated based on readers' votes received. Each round/week thereafter, 25% of the photos will be eliminated until we get down to the finals. After three rounds, those still remaining will be allowed to submit a new photo (if desired) of the same pet to be in the finals
